Norderstedt, June 6th 2018 – Following Cory Henry’s CASIO visit during Musikmesse to present the new CT-X keyboard series, part two of the successful cooperation now follows: CASIO is releasing a new music video today with Cory Henry at the keys of the new CT-X5000 keyboard.

The video was shot in Frankfurt am Main in a 16-metre-long “light cocoon” in the shape of a zeppelin, which was placed on the grass verge of Niebelungenallee in Frankfurt’s Nordend district during the “Luminale 2006”.

Cory Henry prepared the track now being released in advance of the shooting and – according to his statement – had a lot of fun with the new CT-X5000: “I had a wonderful time recording the track for the video – really, I sat at home for hours jamming.”
